

Meet the Authors

Dave Wolverton

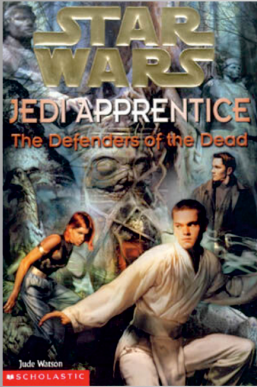

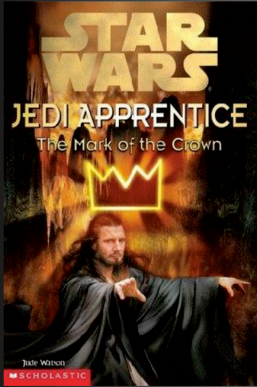

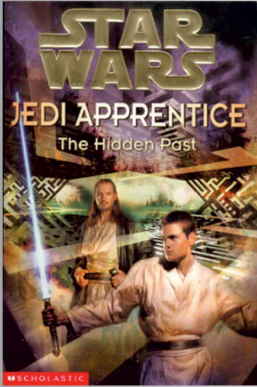

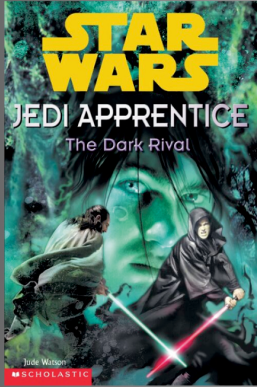

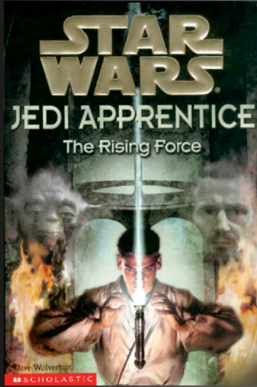

Dave Wolverton (May 15, 1957 – January 14, 2022) was the author of the novel The Courtship of Princess Leia. He also wrote a number of short stories, including Payback: The Tale of Dengar, The Sand Tender: The Hammerhead's Tale, and A Free Quarren in the Palace: Tessek's Tale for the Star Wars short-story anthologies Tales from the Mos Eisley Cantina, Tales from Jabba's Palace and Tales of the Bounty Hunters. Wolverton also contributed to the Jedi Apprentice young-reader series, writing book one, The Rising Force, and co-writing book three, The Hidden Past, with Jude Watson and also writing four of the Episode I Adventures. Wolverton also wrote eight books of the Star Wars Missions series.

Jude Watson

Jude Watson is a novelist for young readers, usually preteens, she now lives in New York. She is probably best known for her Star Wars works, which are usually set in the prequel era and involve the Jedi. Clear examples of these include the Jedi Apprentice, Jedi Quest, Last of the Jedi and Legacy of the Jedi series. She wrote journals from the point of view of Princess Leia, Padme Amidala and Darth Maul. She also helped write the Star Wars: Science Adventures series with K. D. Burkett.

Peace over anger.
Honor over hate.
Strength over fear.

Twelve-year-old Obi-Wan Kenobi desperately wants to be a Jedi Knight. After years at the Jedi Temple, he knows the power of the lightsaber and the Force. But he cannot control his own anger and fear.

Qui-Gon Jinn's past is not at rest. How can he forge a bond with young Obi-Wan Kenobi while he is haunted by the betrayal of his first apprentice — Xanatos? Xanatos was also a promising student...until the dark side of the Force intervened. Qui-Gon thought he was gone forever.

Can one learn to control his anger while the other learns to find acceptance?
